

About Us

Contributed by

At this time, went on a trip has become the requirement for many people. Before going on a trip, usually tourists always looked for information about the place that will be visited, or even looked for information about the other tourist attraction that was not yet known. Together with the brightness of the use of the internet media as search facilities for information, bestindonesiaislands.com tried to be present as a homepage that presented information about tourist attractions in Indonesia. This homepage aimed at giving the ease for tourists looked for the tourist attraction or carried out the trip to go on holiday in the Indonesian territory. With the attendance bestindonesiaislands.com, we hoped information that was obtained by tourists was increasingly complete. Have a good holiday.